LETTER FROM NEW YORK

NEW YORK Oct 20th 1866

EDITOR OREGONIAN

New York is a nebula of nations—to a Belfast stranger who has freshly arrived from his quiet farm farm on the Willamette or from his peaceful potatoe-patch just below Rooster Rock We are amazed and marvel at the heterogeneous mass of nationalities which we everywhere see around us jostling on Broadway sitting in the customs, trading in the markets, crowding in the street cars gathering on the parks, loafing at the corners, drinking in the saloons lounging in the Cafes "a sound as of a rushing mighty wind," accompanied with a frequent dash of Bourbon thunder and Jersey lightning arises from this vast crowd of Galileans and Gothamites Partheans and Parisians, Medes and Mexicans Elamites and Shoddyites, dwellers in Mesopotamia and distillers from the oil regions of Pennsylvania, visitors from Canadensis in Patmos and from California on the Pamitic seashores from all parts of Asia, and a few from Oregon Phrygians and Pamphylians in Egypt, and Females and Filibusters in Erin dwellers in the parts of Lybia about Cyrene and Cyprians liberal to the dwellers in any parts Strangers from Rome and Strangers from Home Jews and Yankees, Proselytes and Proselytes Cretes and Arabians, Copperheads and Radicals all speaking in many tongues, some of them full of new wine, some of them full of old wine

Indeed, it would be no easy matter to find another city in the world whose population is composed of such a conglomerate mixture as this of New York, and one in which the foreign element so largely abounds in proportion to the native inhabitants To a casual observer it looks very much as though all those who have lost a fortune or a character in the Old World had come here in the hope of either finding or making a new one in this busy metropolis of the new world A thing very easily accomplished here, provided always, the new comer is not over scrupulous about whose fortune or what character he takes Work is easily obtained and labor is better paid than in any other city, but the prices of living, board and rent are enormous Board at a first class hotel is $4 to $5 per day, and half as much more for extras and sheetcraps

But greenbacks and Government bonds, the repletion and shoddy have made this a fast city, in a fast country, in a fast age We can beat the world for fast ships, fast railroads, fast Congressmen fast Presidents, fast men, fast horses and fast, not least, fast women

"Will you take a ride out to the Jerome Park?" said a New York friend to us one day shortly after our arrival "Great times out there to morrow—inauguration of the course—all the fast rage in the country will be there"

We had seen Union Square at evening on the occasion of a political gathering, when a thousand and one Chinese lanterns torch lights and calcium suns, shed their glare upon a mass of 60 000 uproarous Democrats We stood in Madison Square, among the thickest of the mass of 70 000 sovereigns of all ages and sexes, on the day of the late Presidential tour when Andy Johnson "handed over that flag with 36 stars to all of us And we rambled one Saturday afternoon, through the green labyrinths of the great Central Park, where all plebeian knickerbockers, with wives and babies, turn out for a holiday stroll, and where all shoddy knickerbockers with their Flora McFlimseys and poodles, whirl along the beautiful Macadam drives, with tandems or four-in-hand

But Jerome Park is a new thing and of course we went there Upon an old Revolutionary farm, nestled among the hills of Westchester county, about seven miles North from the heart of the city, Mr Leonard W Jerome, one of the princely brokers of New York, has fitted up for the use of the American Jockey Club, a race track and grounds far exceeding anything of the kind in America, and not excelled in Europe This is an effort among gentlemen of wealth and taste, to popularize the race in this country and to maintain a ground which shall be free from the more objectionable features of almost all race tracks in America. This was the inauguration day of the new course, and of course it was a grand affair

Over $200 000, it is said, has been expended in preparing and fitting up the grounds and buildings The grand stand, which looks like a vast three-story chateau, built in the railroad style of architecture, is capable of holding comfortably over 800 spectators

The private stand for the members of the club and their friends, will accommodate 2,000 more the ample stables afford room for 100 trained horses, and on the sloping hill-sides surrounding the track, which lies in the basin or valley below, there is room for all the vehicles that may gather here

Some say the number of people present is 50 000 at the gates and on the grounds are an hundred policemen specially detailed to preserve order and exclude all suspicious fellows the pickpockets and thieves the three-card monte dealers the thimble riggers, the little jokers, et id omne genus

All sorts and conditions of men, from millionaires and bankers to clerks and jockeys are here, the beauty, fashion, and wealth of the metropolis are gathered Gen Grant, the chief of our army Madame Ristori, the Queen of tragedy and a distinguished Divine whose name I won't mention, have honored the occasion with their presence

With the American Jockey Club and Jerome Park is inaugurated a new era in raging in America If Oregonians you could have seen as we saw the brilliant scene presented on this occasion, the hundreds of splendid equipages with their merry shouting occupants the throng of sporting men on the quarter stretch, the fleet horses and their gaily dressed grooms the bevies of beautiful ladies on the grand stand and the club stand with their gorgeous array of autumnal toilettes, in all the pomp and circumstance of fashion, the picturesque scene presented by the configuration of the ground in a natural amphitheatre, the crowds of country folks on all the hills, getting a free sight, without payment of the greenback at the gate, the fun, the frolic, the excitement, the gossip, the rush for pools at the auctioneer's stand, you would have thought this a just age and this a rousing betting city

A peculiarity of this track is that it is neither in form of a circle or ellipse but somewhat like a figure 8, the first of the kind built in this country It may be exactly described by a comparison drawn from a familiar figure You may make a whistle of pig's tail but did you ever try to fold for your wife

Union Gains in the Late Elections.

The wonderful increase of the Union majorities in the great West is one of the most significant political facts of our time. Once those States formed the stronghold of the Democratic party. Six years ago that party lost its hold upon them, and since then the majorities for its opponents have been steadily increasing. New York and Pennsylvania are now the only great Northern States in which elections are stubbornly contested, and in each of these the Democratic party continually finds its candidates in a minority by several thousands. We have now official returns from many of the Congressional Districts of the West. To show the progress which the Union party has made, let us briefly compare the returns of 1866 with those of 1864. Let us look at Michigan. In the First District Bouman, Union, had in 1864, 2,314 majority. This year he gets 1,500. In the Second District the Union majority is about the same as two years ago. In the Third District the Union majority in 1864 was 2,674. In 1866 it is 3,000. In the Fourth District there is a Union gain of 2,000 on the majority of 1864. In the Fifth District Trowbridge is re-elected by 2,300 majority. His majority in the previous election was but 710. In the Sixth District Driggs has 6,500 majority. In 1864 his majority was 1,886. Pass to Wisconsin. In the first District of that State Paine's (Union) majority is 4,253. Two years ago it was only 588. In the Second District the Union majority is 5,296, against 4,493 two years ago. In the Third District the Union gain is about 300 over the majority of 1864. The Fourth District gives Eldridge, Democrat, 2,565 majority. In 1864 his majority ran up to 4,631. In the Fifth District Sawyer, Union, has 5,060 majority. His majority two years ago was 2,044. There is a loss of 300 in the Sixth District on the Union majority of 1864; but Washburne, Union, still has a majority of 6,500. In Illinois the Union gains are still more considerable. In the First District a Union Congressmen is elected by 9,580 majority, a gain of 5,300 over the majority of 1864. Ingersoll, Union, in the Fifth District, has a majority larger by above 2,000 than at the last election. Every other District shows Union gains in similar proportion. The gains in Minnesota, and in some of the Iowa Districts, are quite as remarkable. Let it be remembered that in nearly every instance the members of the present Congress were candidates for re election, and the magnitude of this victory for Congress will then clearly appear. Congress, it was said, did not represent the country. The people reply by re-electing their representatives by majorities increased beyond all precedent. No Congress was ever so enthusiastically endorsed by the people as the present one, and none was ever so deserving of this great testimonial of the people's approbation.

Ship Building on Puget Sound.

The Bulletin publishes a short article setting forth the practicability of commencing an extensive system of ship building on Puget Sound. The subject is an important one, and the business might be made to yield a great profit to that section and to the whole Pacific coast. Nowhere in the world are there better facilities for ship building than at Puget Sound. There is timber at hand in unlimited quantities, and of a quality not surpassed, if equaled, elsewhere on the continent. Spars are now sent from Puget Sound to all parts of the world, and it is readily conceded that they are the finest that can be anywhere obtained. Lumber is shipped from there in great quantities both to domestic and foreign ports by vessels built and owned elsewhere. Now the question arises, why cannot vessels be built on the Sound, freighted with sawed lumber and spars, dispatched to the principal ports of Europe or wherever there is a market, and sold at a profit, vessel and cargo together? Suppose the principal millmen of the Sound were to undertake this business. They would give employment to their mills, sell their lumber, carry it to market and have the whole profit of these transactions, besides the profit of the sale of their vessels. This business is largely carried on on the North Atlantic coast, where the facilities for it are no better, if so good, as on Puget Sound. The Bulletin seems to be mistaken in one particular, as it thinks there is not enough of oak on the Sound for knees and frames. We believe there is a great abundance of oak timber in that locality for these purposes. There is timber enough of every kind needed for the building of the best ships, and the day will come when this fact will be thoroughly demonstrated. The Bulletin conceives, and rightly, as we think, that the mill-owners of the Sound would find it cheaper to build vessels, freight them and sell vessel and cargo abroad, than to charter vessels to come into their waters in ballast to load for the French and English dockyards.

A Scheme to Gratify and Appal.

One of the many accounts just received from Washington states that the President is about to inaugurate a policy which will gratify his friends and appal his enemies. Probably this is more sensational talk. Possibly it may have a meaning. Doubtless it would be much easier for him to gratify and delight his friends than to appal his enemies. So the statement may be half true. He has gratified his friends on several occasions within the last few months, and may be able to gratify them again. It is his forte to delight rather than to appal. He has the gift of amusing people, but so far, he has not been particularly successful in frightening them.

What the new movement which is both to gratify and appal will be, can only be conjectured. It is provoking to be left in the dark about a matter of so much importance. Those who are to be gratified are no doubt eager for the play to begin. Those who are to be appalled are awaiting the explosion with anxiety, that they may be relieved from a painful suspense. All are therefore anxious for the drama to commence of which the prologue has just been spoken.

What is it to be? Possibly the Philadelphia Ledger's dispatch was, after all, its prelude. The President has denied the truth of this dispatch, but he has not denied the revolutionary purposes which it attributes to him. May not that dispatch have had some foundation after all? May it not have been suffered to leak out for the purpose of trying the Northern temper and sounding the Northern mind? The President may be infatuated to such an extent as to believe that a stroke like this would not be resisted. He may suppose that in this way he could gratify his friends and appal his enemies. Possibly his taking such a course would afford his friends a brief season of gratification. That it would also appal his enemies is not quite so certain. If he has any desire to finish his term he will not go into the business which the specials assert that he is about to undertake.

We learn from Canyon City by private letter of the 19th, that the Indians made a raid a few days since on the ranch of John Douglas in John Day's Valley, and drove off a yoke of cattle with which Douglas was plowing in the field. The Indians, fifteen in number, made off in the direction of the Harney Lake country. It seems that the noble red men of the Canyon City region have not altogether forgotten either their cunning or their "cussedness."

The Philadelphia Age says, since the elections, that now, "Democratic principles are dearer than ever." We suppose that happens upon the principle that friends are never appreciated till they are dead.

By Overland Telegraph,

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 21.

Contradictory Statements Concerning the President's Position.

Chicago, Nov 20.—A prominent Democratic Congressman who visited the President says that he will not budge an inch from his former declared opinions. The New York Times' correspondent says the President has not authorized his party men on the minority suffrages plan, but gives encouragement that it will substantially adopt it.

The Evening Post's correspondent says there is little hope that the President will recommend impartial suffrage. The correspondents show much ingenuity in metal bolting the dark subject. The National Intelligencer continues to advocate the Philadelphia conservative platform and intimates that the President has reasons to pay off on the prominent Democrats for defeating the Philadelphia movement. It calls a conservative national committee to meet and organize for another campaign. Another says the President is willing to grant suffrage to all colored men who can read and who have served honorably in the Union army.

It is believed that the President stands with Secretary McCulloch on the financial questions, and that a large portion of the message will be devoted to a discussion of finances.

The New York Senatorship.

Chicago Nov 20.—Horace Greeley writes the following letter to the Editor of the Newburg Journal concerning the Senatorship from New York.

TRIBUNE OFFICE, N. Y., Nov. 14.

DEAR SIR.—In your leader of the 12th inst you say I ought to make known my views and wishes in regard to the United States Senatorship in prospect. I comply with your suggestion. I shall certainly accept the Senatorship and resign or to discharge the duties should I be elected. I should be gratified to learn that my steadily chosen legislature shall judge me the man for the place. I believe this fully answers your requisition, and now allow me to add that should the members be importuned or bullied or bored to vote for me, or in any manner solicited to act otherwise than as their convictions of public duty shall dictate, it will not be the fault of yours.

HORACE GREELY.

The New York Times endorses Greeley, and says we shall be glad to see his claims to the Senatorship and his qualifications for it recognized by the Legislature.

Attack on Matamoras.

GALVESTON, Nov 1.—A spirited attack was made on Matamoras, lasting several hours, under Gen But distrusting Cortinas, he did not follow up his advantage. The defenders lost 20 prisoners, and their commander, Col. Shea, was arrested for bad conduct.

Ortega and party remain at Brazos. One hundred Federal troops leave soon for the frontier.

From Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—The Vera Cruz dates of 13th say: Maximilian was at Orizaba on the 12th, with his health greatly improved, and no intention of abandoning the country. Maximilian's ministers unanimously determined to continue in office without alteration.

R. E. Lee Visits Washington—Morrissey "Sees" the President.

Washington specials notice the arrival of Gen. Robt. E. Lee, and say John Morrissey had an interview with the President yesterday.

The Army Register.

James Brownlow, son of Gov Brownlow has been appointed Captain in the regular army, and ordered to San Juan.

The army register, including appointments to the new regiments, are being revised in proof. It makes a volume about three times the size of the last register.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Before official hours to-day there was a better inquiry for five-twenties and an advance of ⅛@¼ fully sustained. Dispatches from Frankfort and Amsterdam say they are also better by ⅛@¼, with a steady business, five-twenties closing in Frankfort at 75¾.

The Bulletin's report to-night says the Atlantic Cable was out of order yesterday, but the Times has the following dispatches by the cable:

ST. PETERSBURG, 18.—The Russian royal marriage festivals have been suddenly stopped on account of the serious illness of Princess Dagmar.

LONDON, Nov 18.—Telegraphic dispatches from Bombay report the gratifying intelligence that the famine in India is abating.

FROM THE NORTH.

Union of the Colonies.

VICTORIA, V. I., Nov. 22.—The union of the colony of Vancouver Island with British Columbia was proclaimed on Monday at noon. All the Vancouver Island officials are notified to retire from office on the 31st of December, but it is understood that the Colonial Secretary, Young, and Treasurer Watson, will be continued by the new regime in their respective offices. The Capital is located at New Westminster, and by some misunderstanding duties are not only levied at Victoria, but at New Westminster. Double port charges, head money, &c., are also charged, and much dissatisfaction has been created.

The island in the Grecian Archipelago which has been purchased by the United States for a naval station is Melos, anciently known as Milo. It belonged to the kingdom of Greece, and is one of the famed Cyclades. It is fourteen miles in length by eight in breadth, with an area of about 65 square miles. It is of volcanic formation. On its N. E. coast is one of the best harbors in the Levant. There are hot mineral springs on the island. On its east coast are extensive ruins of an ancient metropolis. The action of Congress in the premises will be necessary to make the purchase by the United States complete.

A PATHOTIC TRAGEDIAN.—Mr. Murdoch, the tragedian, has stepped from the stage of fictitious woes to that of realities. Recently, at Mozart Hall, in Cincinnati, to an audience numbering thousands, he made an address on the issues of the day. The address, two hours in length, was received with frequent applause. Speaking of his dead boy, he said:

"I have a son sleeping out yonder, beneath the sods of Spring Grove, and rather than have his bones and those of a traitor rest together in a common grave, I would burn them, and scatter them to the four winds of heaven."

According to the testimony of Democratic Congressmen, the President is of the opinion that the people have been "hoodwinked and deluded." The President made an extensive tour to show "my policy" to the people, and the result of the elections show that they were neither hoodwinked or deluded by him.

Wade Hampton lately made a speech in which he bitterly upbraided Johnson for compelling the South to ratify the amendment abolishing slavery. Wade regards it as usurpation.

CONSUMPTIVES.—Try NEWELL'S PULMONARY STRUP, and use it FREELY.

MAXIMILIAN has skedaddled from Mexico, but KOHN & FISHEL at the ST LOUIS CLOTHING STORE still continue to receive by every steamer direct from manufacturers, New and Fashionable Clothing, which they sell at strictly San Francisco prices.

Having a large stock of Dry Goods still on hand and requiring more room for their large clothing trade, they have concluded to sell all dry goods for ladies' wear below San Francisco cost.

TUSCAN-SHADED.—ELLSWORTH & CALDWELL, 89 First Street, produce the most elegant PICTURES of the present day. The camera obscura at this GALLERY is the "glass of fashion," and truly reveals the "mould of form." Some of the specimens we saw here lately look as though they were continually fanned by a passing zephyr. We don't know how it is, but these gentlemen understand the art of "superb finish." Negatives taken in all kinds of weather.

BEWARE OF THE RAG-TAKERS when property is not safe on Block Thirty seven, between Fifth and Sixth streets, with a good fence six feet high around it. The house that I built in 1851 stands on that Block. The Rag-Takers went in and carried away such things as suited their convenience on Saturday, the 17th November, 1866. After their search of the house and barn there were missing eight pairs pillows, one iron teakettle, one tin teakettle, one skillet, two large dripping pans, blankets, clothing and rags. On Monday, the 19th, I got out a search warrant to search Winchart's Old Brewery. In the search found two pairs pillows on their beds, iron teakettle on their stove, skillet and one dripping pan with their stove furniture. These things sold the Rag Takers were taken to the Recorder's Court by Ward. The evidence taken was what a Splinter of the Law said—calling the house an old shanty, and the things taken nothing but rags, and other language as low as the things his clients took.

W. K. ... vs. A. C. Gibbs et al.—verdict of the jury for ... plaintiff for $1,353.

A bill of charges ... empanelled in the case of the State ... vs. Wm and Ah Sing, indicted for murder.

In State vs. Fred Weiser, State vs. Jos. Webber, and ... State vs. Chas. Collins, indicted for keeping open tippling ... house on Sunday, defendants pleaded guilty and were ... fined $10 and costs.

Custom House.—The steamer Senator brought last ... week from Oregon City 702 sks feed, 203 bxs apples, 8 ... kegs butter, 2 bxs mdse, 420 qr sks flour, 2 pkgs ... mdse, 6 sks bacon, 1 keg apple butter. She ... had on board ... guns and a full freight. It will be ... seen that she was filled up and refused freight for ... several days.

Another Case.—We are informed that a movement is on ... foot to test the legality of this law in the next indictment ... found by the grand jury. A large amount of money has ... been raised, and the question will probably be thorough- ... ly ... and left at rest finally and forever. It has ... long been a vexed question.

The Grand Jury on a Rampage.—The Grand Jury yester- ... day ... of sixty-five persons, resident in the city of ... Lodi, to appear to-day at 10 o'clock, to testify con- ... cerning ... offenses, with a view to indicting all ... parties found engaged in unlawful practices therein.

Arrival.—The steamer Montana, of the Anchor line, J. ... L. Tidy, Commander, sailed yesterday for San Francisco ... direct, at 11 o'clock A. M. She takes about 200 passen- ... gers. A large amount of freight. The steamer was to ... receive 80 or 90 tons of freight at Springville.

Where You Can Get "Cheap."—The man who wants to buy ... "cheap" clothes, can probably purchase, on easy ... terms, white cravats and claw-hammer coats, not ... worn since the military ball.

In a Court.—In Recorder's Court before Judge ... Strahan ——— Miller, upon a charge of drunken- ... ness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 and costs; in ... default was sent to jail for five days.

DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS
Have been of great service in making people healthy, and keeping them so. They should be found in every household.
They give tone to the Stomach, vigor to the body, and remove dark doubts and unhappy feelings from the mind. They relieve pain and fortify the whole system against the attacks of disease.
There is nothing better to take "for the Stomach's sake" than the PLANTATION BITTERS.
They cure Dyspepsia, Heartburn, Indigestion, Drowsiness, Headache, Pain in the Side, Liver Complaint, and Rheumatic Pains, with magical power.
A good effect is felt at once upon making the first trial. No change of diet is necessary. Eat the best you can get and all you want. Follow our directions and you will soon feel
WELL, STRONG AND HEARTY.
A great many side hits are being made at the Plantation Bitters, by a score or two of disinterested friends who have endeavored to imitate or counterfeit them. It's all of no use. The people won't be imposed upon. The Plantation Bitters are increasing in use and popularity every day, and "that's what's the matter." They are the same sized bottle, and made just as they were at first, and will continue to be, or we shall stop making them.
They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhœa, Cholera and Cholera Morbus.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.
They are the best Bitters in the world. They make the weak strong, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. The Recipe and full Circular are around each bottle. Clergymen, Merchants, and persons whose sedentary habits induce weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, liver complaint, constipation, &c., will find immediate and permanent relief in these Bitters. But above all, they are recommended to weak and delicate females and mothers.
They are sold by all respectable merchants. See that each bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork and steel-plate side label.
Beware of refilled bottles. See that the stamp has not been tampered with. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon is a swindler and imitator, and should be immediately reported to us.

FROM IDAHO.

The subjoined items are from the Boise Statesman of the 15th inst.:

AN INTERESTING RACE.

An exciting race is to come off on the 24th inst. A match has been made between the little gray mag owned by Capt. Porter and "Nannie Hunt," owned by Mr. A Wyatt, for a thousand dollars a side; distance, one thousand yards. A great deal of interest will be occasioned in sporting circles by this match, and not a few "centuries" of greenbacks will change hands on the result.

WEATHER.

The Valley experienced a drizzling rain yesterday, and the mountains a light fall of snow.

We clip the following from the Idaho City Times of the 13th:

MOSES CREEK MINES.

On Sunday last we paid a flying visit to Pine Grove and the claims in the immediate vicinity. We found the miners considerably brightened by the sudden appearance of snow. They are still sanguine of being able to work until the first of next month. Several companies are working a full complement of laborers day and night. The village of Pine Grove presents quite a lively appearance. Kenyon & Co. are the principal merchants. Jeff. Howell and Ernest Miller are doing the agreeable to the thirsty. A ball is the order for this evening.

MORE INDIAN OUTRAGES.

We learn by passengers who arrived here last evening, that the Indians had attacked one of Hill Beachey's Star City stages on Thursday last, killing a man by the name of Hitchcock. The remainder escaped to a station upon horses cut loose from the stage. Upon their return to the scene of attack, they found Hitchcock scalped and his heart cut out. He was a teamster, and had about $9,000 with him, of which he was robbed.

THE LEMHI MINES.

G. W. Kennedy, a former resident of Idaho City, lately returned from the new mines near Lemhi. He showed us a brick weighing 132 ounces, 900 fine, and valued at $348 65, or $2 64 per ounce. About 450 miners will winter there. The provisions for the camp are obtained at East Bannock, about 80 miles distant.

IDAHO OBSERVER A NEW PAPER.

The Idaho Observer is the title of a new paper which will make its first appearance in Silver City, Owyhee county, I. T., on next Thursday. The Observer will be published by Buchanan & Carleton, two young men of Owyhee, and from what we can learn, these gentlemen will make the Observer an interesting and readable paper.

CALIFORNIA STATE ITEMS.

Scarlet fever, in a mild form, prevails in San Jose and vicinity.

Dr. W. D. Aylette, ex-Superintendent of State Asylum, sailed by the last steamer for the East.

The San Francisco Times says letters from New York state that a large party is forming to come here and take the first steamer for China, with the intention of going around the world. Moses H. Grinnell, A. A. Low, and Captain Comstock are mentioned as among the number.

About the first of next month the Express newspaper office will be moved from Marysville to Sacramento, and here it will be published as a morning paper at the rate of three bits a week. It will be published on each morning of the week, except Monday, thus making a Sunday paper.

The Bee says the levees along the Yolo side of the Sacramento river are progressing. Several miles have been completed down Washington, and men and teams are actively engaged in the work all along the line. Also below Washington considerable work is doing on the levees.

The Harbor Master, says the Bulletin, reports 497 vessels engaged in the coasting and bay trade. There are 35 steamers, with a total capacity of 18,523 tons; 6 ships, with a capacity of 4,176 tons; 41 barks, 15,795 tons, 25 brigs, 6,586 tons; 282 schooners, 10,985 tons, and 107 sloops, 1,910 tons. The total tonnage by new measurement, engaged in the coasting trade in 1865–6, was 67,765 tons.

HOW BISMARCK OUTWITTED THE FRENCH EMPEROR.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times, writing recently, gives an account of the manner in which Bismarck overreached Napoleon in some late investigations:

There are persons in Paris, and probably a great many throughout France who maintain and are convinced that Count Bismarck promised the Emperor an extension of frontier in the direction of the Rhine, as the price of his complete neutrality in the contemplated war, and of his not even forming an army of observation in the direction of Germany. Such persons, of course, abuse Count Bismarck for having broken his word. His end once gained, they say, Austria once prostrate and the military power of Prussia established, as at least on a par with the first in Europe, he broke his pledge and would give nothing.

Take Belgium, if you please; annex the canton of Geneva if you think proper; but of German land not a foot can be yielded up. Count Bismarck has adopted the saying of Ristaseli, when he was taxed with the intention of ceding Sardinia as a part of the Riviera to France; he sees a great deal of land to take but not an acre to give up. It is very doubtful, however, whether he be not unjustly accused when he is charged with having broken his promise in the case above cited. My belief is that the Emperor outwitted himself rather than that he was outwitted by Bismarck. The Prussian Minister went to Biarritz most anxious to secure that neutrality of France which should enable him to carry out his ambitious designs and to make the war, for which he at last took a pretext, as much as proved as unsubstantial and baseless as that advanced by the wolf for his attack upon the lamb.

At that time the Emperor might almost have made his own terms, sure of their acceptance. Bismarck was pliant, conciliatory—in fact supplicant. He actually bored and persecuted the Emperor by his persistence, but he could not get his august interlocutor to come to any sort of verbal agreement. No compact was made, I have good reason for thinking, and no equivalent for French neutrality definitely stipulated. The Emperor listened, twirled his mustache, but was impenetrable and taciturn. Still, although he avoided committing himself, the impression on his mind seems to have been that Count Bismarck was bound to certain concessions if France, when the time came, acted in the way that Prussia desired. Bismarck, on the other hand, obtaining no pledge, held himself in no way bound to any offers he might have made. There was no bargain; in fact, the Emperor had never said "done."

And when victory had been gained by Prussia, and the claims for tithes was put in, it was rejected without breach of promise. It was sharp practice, if you please, on the part of Bismarck, but the Emperor ought better to have known with whom he was dealing. But as the Prussian Minister feels that his work is not yet done; knows that he has many enemies in Germany, and many difficulties yet to surmount; and finally, notwithstanding the needle-gun, thinks it much more expedient to be on good than on bad terms with France, it is still thought by many here that he will make concessions of some kind. I am incredulous of their including a cession of German territory, even though it were but the frontier of 1814. It would be too great a blow to his prestige as a conqueror, too unpopular a step in Prussia, and, indeed, throughout Germany.

"MARK TWAIN" ROBBED.—The Virginia, Nev., Enterprise of Nov. 11th has the following:

After his lecture at Gold Hill last evening, Mark Twain and his agent (Mac) were coming on foot up to this city, when just as they were on the Divide, near the Montreal House, they were stopped by five highwaymen and robbed of about $100 in coin and a valuable gold watch. Mark publishes a card on the subject in another column. This is no joke, but is downright sober earnest. There should be a little hanging done among those rascals. This is the boldest robbery yet.

Following is Mark's "Card to the Highwaymen" above mentioned:

Last night I lectured in Gold Hill, on the Sandwich Islands. At 10 o'clock I started on foot to Virginia, to meet a lot of personal friends who were going to set up all night with me and start me off in good shape for San Francisco in the morning. This social programme proved my downfall. But for it, I would have remained in Gold Hill. As we "raised the hill" and straightened upon the "Divide," a man just ahead of us (Mac, my agent, and myself), blew an ordinary policemen's whistle, and Mac said, "thunder! this is an improvement—they didn't use to keep policemen on the Divide." I coincided. The infernal whistle was only a signal to you road agents. About half a minute afterward, a small man emerged from some ambuscade or other and crowded close up to me. I was smoking and supposed he wanted a light. But this humorist instead of asking for a light, thrust a horrible six-shooter in my face and simply said, "Stand and deliver!" I said: "My son your arguments are powerful—take what I have, but unhook that infernal pistol." The young man unhooked the pistol (but he requested three other gentlemen to present theirs at my head,) and then he took all the money I had (only $20 or $25,) and my watch. Then he said to one of his party, "Bourneguel, go through that man!"—meaning Mac—and the distinguished rebel did go through Mac. Then the little Captain said, "Stonewall Jackson, sent these men by the roadside and bids yourself; if they move within five minutes blow their brains out!" Stonewall said, "All right, sir." Then the party (six in number) started toward Virginia, and disappeared.

Now, I want to say to you road agents as follows: My watch was given me by Judge Sandy Baldwin and Theodore Winters, and I value it above anything else I own. If you will send that to me (to the Enterprise office) or to any prominent man in San Francisco you may keep the money and welcome. You know you got all the money Mac had—and Mac, is an Orphan—and besides, the money he had belonging to me. Adieu my romantic young friends.

MARK TWAIN.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, 2 P. M., Nov. 23, 1866.

We have but little of interest to notice in our home markets. The transactions for the week in review have been quite limited. The steamers Montana and Pacific both sail to-day with very large freight. The Pacific was filled up and refused freight at 10 o'clock on Thursday the 22d inst. Large amounts of flour are being sent to San Francisco market, although the margin is very small, and were it not for low transportation, we would be unable to send a penny to that market. As it is the traders consider the market as unsettled and unsafe.

In the San Francisco market the following are the quotations:

Flour—Superfine bf sks $6 00@6 25, qr sks $6 25@6 50; extra bf sks $6 50@8 75, qr sks $6 75@7 00.

Wheat—Fair milling $1 76@1 80; choice $1 85@2 00 per 100 lbs.

Barley—Market is very quiet; 95@$1 00 for choice feed and brewing.

Oats—There is a little more inquiry for export; range for fair to choice at $1 40@1 55 per 100 lbs.

In San Francisco the receipts of Wheat have fallen off over 50 per cent, during the past week, as compared with the one previous. For the week ending last they were 104,487 sks against 28,325 sks for the corresponding week in 1865. From this time forward a diminution in the receipts may be expected. The aggregate receipts since July 1st foot up 2,389,570 sks against 1,068,375 sks for the same time in 1865, an increase this year of 1,490,761 sks. The exports for the past week have been quite light and principally on New York account, embracing 38,308 sks against 40,769 sks for the corresponding week last year. Our exports since July 1st aggregate 1,140,213 sks against 340,364 sks for the same time in 1865, an increase this year of 899,849 sks, or 81,383 sks more than was exported for the entire harvest year of 1865–66.

Since our last reference we have received no later quotations from either China, Australia or Chile. Our last mail dates from New York quote new White Michigan at $3 25 (currency) ₱ bushel. In Liverpool, October 9th, California was quoted at 10s 8d@10s 9d ₱ 100 lbs, reckoning the English shilling at 24c.

More Wheat is reported to be going by steamer across the Isthmus to New York. But perhaps the news of a fall will stop it. It is thought by the best grain merchants that prices must fall; that the high prices have been helped by the speculators, and if there is scarcity of Wheat, the great Corn crop will take the place and bring down the price. It seems to have begun falling at the East. The Grain Market is more cut up and divided than for a year or more past. Competition is greater than ever before. There are now several brokers competing for the business, and as a consequence, all parties are anxious to have their orders filled with promptness. The crop is large, and the trade too much for a single party to control. The result is, a sharp competition has already been inaugurated between buyers, some of whom are speculators; others and much the greater number, purchasers for export. Our Grain trade is becoming one of vast importance, and it requires almost a mint of money to move it.

The accounts received concerning the crops in Europe continue gloomy. With regard to England, the Pall Mall Gazette of September 21st says:

The harvest is unusually late; the weather at the most critical time has been deplorable; throughout the country a large amount of Corn is still both uncarried and uncut; and whatever may be the result as to quantity, the quality both of Wheat and Barley, especially the latter, has been very seriously injured. The worst feature of the case, however, is that we are now arrived at a critical period, when every day's rain inflicts irreparable damage, and the weather show no indications of improvement. It is no extravagant estimate that each wet day now costs the country half a million sterling.

On the Continent things are no better. In France and Switzerland especially the summer has been both cold and rainy. In respect to the crops, the same paper remarks:

In several parts of France the Grain crops are still to be seen on the ground, and in a deplorably damaged condition. France will have to be an importer of Wheat this year, and to a very considerable amount. In Russia and in the Danubian Provinces, on the contrary, the harvest appears to have been plentiful and of excellent quality. From the Black Sea, therefore, we shall have to draw our main importations. But as our commercial transactions with Russia are on a far more restricted scale than with many other countries, especially France and the United States, a great proportion of the supply we obtain from her will have to be paid for in gold, and may, it is possible enough, cause some temporary inconvenience and disturbance in our money market.

Our telegraphic reports of yesterday morning contain the following concerning the unsettled condition of business in New York:

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Commercial says there is a general advance of one per cent. on loans, and there is a good deal of uneasiness in the loan market; the natural consequence of a combination of circumstances tending to diminish confidence, such as a decline in stocks averaging 12½ per cent.

The collapse in dry goods proves an underestimate of many manufactures, and occasions failures and a postponement of debts by merchants in the interior. There is a large supply of paper, but bills of only the highest credit find free currency.

The stock market to-day exhibits a depression bordering closely on panic. At both boards there was a wish to sell, with but few buyers beyond those who had contracts to cover. Government stocks are heavy and sympathize with the decline in other securities. Western Union Telegraph stock fell off heavily in consequence of a rumor that the company would pass its dividends.

Gold continues weak. Rumors are persistently circulated that the Treasury is selling gold, official denials to the contrary notwithstanding. The truth appears to be that no one is willing to load up with gold in anticipation of a favorable exhibit of the public finances at the opening of Congress, and the possible recommendation in Secretary McCulloch's report of a policy looking to the early resumption of specie payments.

Wheat is very dull and 3 as 5 cents lower. Flour 20 and 30 cents lower. Dry goods opened more quiet and steady, but the decline amounts to five per cent. on almost all kinds. These reductions have caused a wide variation in quotations. The declining tendency in gold and cotton keeps the market unsettled.

Two days later, we have the following:

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—There is considerable irregularity of feeling and opinion in the dry goods market, and prices tend downwards, although Saturday's quotations are nominally maintained.

Bullion is very dull and 2@3c lower. Good brands $11 @13 75. Wheat 5@8c lower.

The bank statements show the following: Decrease of loans $25,000,000; increase of specie $2,333,000. Increase of circulation, $2,630,000; decrease of deposits, $4,500,000; decrease of legal tenders, $5,500,000; total specie, $135,000,000. Money easy without much movement in discounts.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE PAYMENT OF BOUNTIES, UNDER THE ACT TO EQUALIZE BOUNTIES, APPROVED JULY 28, 1866.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON, September 15, 1866.

1. All applications shall be filed within the period of six months, from the date of the order, 1866, and before any payments are made, shall be classified by regiments, battalions, or other separate organizations, and no application filed after that period shall be settled until after the former shall have been paid.

2. No application shall be entertained unless accompanied by the original discharge of the soldier and the affidavit required by the eighteenth section of the Act, and the further affidavit that he has not received, nor is he entitled to receive from the United States, under any other law or resolution prior to the Act of July 28, 1866, more than $100 bounty for any and all military service rendered by him during the late rebellion, over and above the amount therein claimed.

3. All applications for the additional bounty authorized by this Act from soldiers entitled thereto, must be in the form hereinafter prescribed, and the evidence of identity shall be the same as is now required and applications from the heirs of deceased soldiers shall be in the form now required by the Treasury Department.

4. As soon as the examination of the claims of any regiment, or other independent organization, shall have been properly acted upon the Paymaster General shall take the necessary steps for their prompt payment.

5. A register shall be kept in the Paymaster General's office, and also in the office of the Second Auditor, of all claims presented under the law, in which the claimants will be classified by regiments, etc. If the claims be allowed, the amount of bounty paid to each will be noted, and if rejected the cause of rejection will be distinctly stated.

6. In the applications for bounty, as required by the third of these rules, the affidavit shall state each and every period of service rendered by the claimant, and also that he never served otherwise than as stated.

7. Organizations irregularly in the service of the United States, or called out for special purposes, as State Militia, Home Guards, etc., and not included in the general bounty laws, are not included within the meaning of the Act.

8. Soldiers enlisted for "three years or during the war," who were discharged by reason of the termination of the war, shall be considered as having served out the period of their enlistment, and are entitled to bounty under this Act.

9. The minority of heirs, claimants for bounty under this Act, must be proved to have existed at the date of its passage. Parents shall receive jointly the bounty to which they may be entitled as heirs, unless the father has abandoned the support of his family. If either is dead the part to which he is shall not be paid to the mother. Non-residence in the United States shall not be a bar to the claim of heirs, who would otherwise legally inherit.

The provisions of the Act exclude from its benefits the following classes:

1. Those who, after serving the full period of their enlistment, were dishonorably discharged at its expiration.

2. Those discharged during enlistment by way of favor or punishment.

3. Those discharged on account of disability contracted in the service, but not occasioned by wounds received "in the line of duty," who shall not have previously served twelve or three years respectively at the time of discharge.

4. Those discharged on account of disability existing at the time of their enlistment.

5. The heirs of those who have died since their discharge of wounds or disease not contracted in the service and in the line of duty.

6. The surviving soldiers and heirs of deceased soldiers who under previous laws, have received or are entitled to receive a bounty of more than $100 from the United States.

7. The surviving soldiers, as well as the heirs of deceased soldiers, when such soldiers have deserted, sold, assigned, loaned, transferred, exchanged or given away their final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other Act of Congress.
